Dear Ed.

Many thanks for your letter just now received. I am sorry to hear that you did not enjoy yourself at the carnival which you went to the other evening, though really am not surprised in one way as you soon get bored at anything which takes place in Hudd. don't you? It is pretty noisy here at times when the guns are busy firing away, they shake the house rather badly + make the windows rattle.

Yours
Bob.

AWAY with hate and
away with care,
Away with all that is not sincere;
Play us a sweet old Yule-

That shall fill our hearts
with Christmas
Cheer,
And may we dance together
again
On the Christmas night of your ninetieth year.

GISSBACH.

July 31. 1888. — L. has come back to my shelter after a walk to the bend of the falls in light. In a good day the walk to the top would be fine to Eugene you some time taking it. We left Leobers by steamboat, then the cars over a new railway constructed railroad near the Riving pass. Then another steamboat to a "gravel" road to this elevated point. We should have made nearly the trip by carriage if the weather had permitted. But I think the R.R. is quite so good. Tonight we reach Interlachen & still we must to be a little more quiet but what can we do in the midst of such wonders! Truly my soul dwells magnificently the Lord! I think of you in your own home as I water bed in the Convent. I have often this come to me, St. Peter, instruct me to each of you under an own roof top. I give you the collection of the Gessbach — 1888.

York, England
Royal Station Hotel.
I am greatly pleased with the Cathedral
of Durham & York.
I wish you might see the quaint old city walls around this city. Martha & I took a little
walk on them
this afternoon & also an omnibus ride. This picture gives you a slight idea of the quaint old houses here. Hoping to see you soon.
With love.
A. E. F.
We expect to be in London Sat.

Hi
 Having a wonderful time! We're now in Rotterdam for the night after a wonderful tour of Amsterdam. I'm sorry, I won't even get a chance to look at prints. We have a tour planned here in the a.m.
 & after lunch we go to Brunel.
 Trying but fun! Love,
