Dear one, We left between 3 and 4 hours in Palermo - they put a steamer acquaintance and I came up to the magnificent church with the beautiful mosaic and wavy and of course my thought flew back to you. There has been enjoyable trip. Although very rough - we are called! But still we had left Palermo on Sunday afternoon. Did we have quiet sea. Sailed with a 200 mi. out to Sardinia with an amazing catch of fish on the top of a 2000 ft. peak. Two days before for a delightful stop in the Aegean, Monday 25. There is a letter yesterday. How we enjoyed with our interesting trip and to - Ray Palermo. To Palermo 7:30 in Naples, and Sunday 28 at Palermo. (S. Napoli) Much love to you.

Dear Ed,

Many thanks for your letter just now received.

Am sorry to hear that you did not enjoy yourself. At the carnival which you went to the other evening, though really am not surprised in one way as you soon get bored at anything which takes place in the old don't you? It is pretty noisy but at times when the guns are being fired away, they shake the house rather badly + make the windows rattle - Yours Ed.

Hi,
Having a wonderful time! We're now in Rotterdam for the night after a wonderful tour of Amsterdam. I'm sorry, I won't even get a chance to look at painter. We have a tour planned here in the a.m.
& after lunch we go to Brunel.
Being but fun! Love,

Isn't this a queer shaped sail boat. They call them lantern sails. I took a picture of one this noon and hope it will develop well. This country is not very good for my supply of films and Holland was worse - there are so many queer things. To-morrow we go to Zermatt near the Matterhorn and on Thurs. we walk over the Theodule pass starting at 3.30 A.M. Part of the way is icy. Lovingly
