Italian Offices in Albania

The Italian post offices in the general area of Albania and northern Greece appear to have used almost any postage stamps that were at hand. The "Al-bania" and general Levant issues, those for individual post offices, and ordinary stamps of Italy without overprint, were all used.

Argirocastro: Existed about 1916 to 1920.

Berat: 1918 to 1920.

Coniza: About 1913 to 1918. Corfu: Civil office existed in 1917; and again from Aug. 31 to Sept. 27, 1923.

Delvino: 1916 to 1920. Durazzo: June 25, 1902 to Sept. 30, 1911; again 1912 to 1916; and again May to December, 1922. Himara: 1916 to 1920.

Janina: Aug. 16, 1902 to Sept. 30, 1911; again 1912 to Nov. 30, 1914; and again in June 1917 for a short time.

Kanina: 1915 to 1920 (this is near Valona). Liascoviki: 1916 to 1920.

Mecovo: 1917 only.

Parga: An unofficial post office appears to have functioned here about 1910.

here about 1910.

Premeti: 1916 to 1920.

Santi Quaranta: The postmark of an Italian naval base ("BASE NAVALE / S. QUARANTA") is known with 1907 date; see "Il Corriere Filatelico" for April, 1939. Civil offices also existed for a short time prior to 1914; and again 1916 to 1920.

Seseno: 1915 to 1920. when Sa-

Saseno: 1915 to 1920, when Saseno was ceded to Italy.
Scutari: Nov. 1, 1901 to Sept.
30, 1911; again 1912 to 1916.
Tepeleni: About 1916 to 1920.

Valona: May 5, 1908 to Sept. 30, 1911; again 1912 to 1920.

Valona-Scalo: 1915 to 1920. This listing refers only to offices whose postmarks showed locations. There were also military offices throughout this area.

Information concerning Italian civil offices in this general area during World War II has not been found.
