Trans-Pacific Air Mail

First day sale of the 25-cent Air Mail stamp and the start of first flight of the Pan-American Clippers' Trans-Pacific Air Mail service took place at San Francisco, Calif., on Nov. 8, 1935.
As inaugurated on that date, the route embraced the Hawaiian Islands, Wake and Queen Islands, terminating at Manila, in the Philippine Islands. A future extension of the service will make Canton, China the western-most terminus of this 8000 mi route.

Trans-Pacific Air Mail

Trans-Pacific Air Mail service to Hawaii, Guam and Manila, P.I. was inaugurated Nov. 22, 1935. After subsequent months of negotiating for a port on the Asiatic mainland a base was established in Macao, a Portuguese colony on the China coast. First flight over the celebrated route was planned for Mar. 24, 1937 or shortly thereafter. The 20¢ and 50¢ airmail stamps were issued for this service. Feb. 15, 1937, first day sale Washington, D. O say can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hall'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there,
O say, does that Star Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
