

BELGIUM

BOLIVIA

8267
8362

8750-172

GHANA

No. 1154

All rights protected
Pat. pend.
Made in Germany

ITALY

The fifth great power of Europe, overcrowded Italy (116,224 sq. mi.; pop. 47,000,000; capital Rome—the "Eternal City") has been called "the Mother of Civilization". Here, 2000 years ago, flourished the Roman Empire; in the Middle Ages, the Italian Renaissance genius was born.

MAGYAR

HAITI

ISSUES OF 1891-98

Palm with stiff leaves

2.25

Palm with drooping leaves, perforated 14, 24 1/2 mm high.

2.70

#28 / .45 #35 / .50
T27, perforated 13 1/2, 23 1/2 mm high.

5.65

4.40

.95

15.95
2

NETHERLANDS

POLAND

PORTUGAL

ROMANIA

RUSSIA

Alexander II

Alexander III

1868-71

2 K
RED AND BLACK

1875-79

10 K
BROWN AND BLUE

20 K
BLUE AND ORANGE

1883

1884-1905

RUSSIA / USSR

SPAIN

SWITZERLAND

1957

REPUBLIC OF TOGO

On October 28, 1956, the French territory of Togo attained internal autonomy and became a republic. Its first stamp pictures a native woman holding flag of the Republic.

KONKOMBA HELMET

Ceremonial head-dress of African tribe of Konkomba inhabiting the upper valley of the river Oti, in the northern territories of Togo.

First Day of Issue: October 29, 1957

EXPO '67

July 27 was the "Togo Day" at Expo '67 which the Togo Republic publicized with a seven-stamp set and a souvenir sheet from a design by M. Shamir of Israel.

First Day of Issue:
May 30, 1967

British Pavilion and Day Lilies

35.15

53438
A-7174

French Pavilion and Roses

United States Pavilion

and Daisies

African Village and Bird-of-paradise flower

5.25
30-

35.25

UNITED NATIONS POSTAGE STAMPS

FIRST REGULAR ISSUE

1951

"Peoples of the World" 6

U. N. Headquarters Building 10

United Nations Emblem 11

United Nations Flag 7

Hemispheres of the World 8

United Nations Flag 9

YUGOSLAVIA

