FAMOUS AMERICANS - 1940

EDUCATORS

Horace Mann

967

Mark Hopkins

970

Charles W. Eliot

971

Frances E. Willard

972

Booker T. Washington

973

One of a special series of stamps honoring famous American citizens. This group of Americans was honored for their untiring efforts in improving our educational systems and facilities. Typical of what could be done in America, Booker T. Washington rose from slavery to become founder of Tuskegee Institute.

OVERRUN COUNTRIES - 1943-1944

POLAND

907

CZECHOSLOVAKIA

908

For the first time since 1894 the United States Bureau of Engraving and Printing contracted with a private firm—the American Bank Note Company—to print the "Flag" series of stamps. This was done so that the stamps could be printed in the special multicolor process. Symbolic of this issue is the mythological bird, Phoenix, representing the renewal of life, which appears on the left side of each stamp. The kneeling figure at the right portrays the breaking of the shackles of oppression.

KENTUCKY STATEHOOD COMMEMORATIVE - 1942

Daniel Boone and Frontiersmen from Mural in State Capital

924

To commemorate the 150th anniversary of the admission of Kentucky into the Union. Daniel Boone, pioneer Indian fighter, made the territory safe for the early settlers.

CHINA COMMEMORATIVE - 1942

Abraham Lincoln, Sun Yat-Sen and
Map of China

925

The fifth anniversary of the resistance of the Chinese people to Japanese aggression. Abraham Lincoln's famous words "of the people, by the people, for the people", appear in Chinese below the portrait of Dr. Sun Yat-Sen.
